

THE DEATH OF LORD BROOKE-SOURCE EXERCISE.

Read all the sources. Then fill in the following table. Leave boxes blank if the source does not mention that aspect.

	A	B	C	D
Where was Lord Brooke standing?
Where did the bullet hit him?
Who shot him?
What was the weapon?
Where was the gunman?

Then answer the following questions:

1. What are the main differences between the reports?
2. Why do you think the reports are so different?
3. Did the writer of Report B support Brooke? Give reasons for your answer.
4. Which do you think is the most accurate report? To help you decide think about who wrote each report and when. Also think about where the writer might have been at the time of Lord Brooke's death.
5. Dyott has been described as a Royalist hero. Do you believe the evidence supports this or was he just lucky? Explain your answer.
